

Diz: Hello Sky.

This is your permanent ban due to identified violations in relation to the following rules:

- [17] Discussions on controversial topics, whether political, religious, social, etc. are prohibited.
- [18] No strong or serious topics such as vi*l, h0m1cide, ped0ph1l1e, su1c1de, etc.

Although this happened on the MC server and by DM (VC), our discord server does not tolerate this kind of racist comments and behaviors towards any religion, etc.

and thank you very much for being part of our team of translators.

Ski: Ah okay I understand, thanks

Ski: Why is there a screen out of context of a conv with Alpo?

Ski: It was not on the server

Ski: [Image]

Ski: I understand about the other accusations, but how do you have this one?

Ski: Especially with the context, it was intentionally a joke

Diz: Alpo sent it to me, it could be taken out of context and not "nice" since it's a serious thème

Ski: [image]

Diz: Ahhh I see, so it's just taken out of context?

Ski: Well totally a little lol

Ski: Same for the rest, it's really not intentional, I can't prove the vocal contexts tho

Ski: But I understand

Ski: I was on the server, joke or not, those are words I have not to use

Ski: Joke or not I can still hurt people who feel concerned

Ski: I'm just a little embarrassed by this screen

Ski: You thought I was Cristophe Columb or?

Alponas: jsjsjs

Alponas: Yes

Ski: Well you think so

Alponas: Slay

Ski: I unmasked

Alponas: It was a bit obvious

Alponas: Too much similarity

Ski: I was the one who raped women and children and killed men who did not believe in my totally healthy religion, which I imposed without force

Ski: adore me

Alponas: great phrase out of context thank you

Ski: Anyway, I don't see why I would have said it like that for no reason

Ski: Same for "je vais faire mon arabe", I'm sure we can find the context there the logs

Ski: Unfortunately, the screen only takes part of the conv, obviously which incriminates me, although I agree that the words are not defensible, it remains taken out of context

Ski: I'm not asking to be unbanned, I understand the decision, thank you anyway for everything, and good luck for the future

Diz: aaaaa yeah but there's not date :/

Diz: I didn't really know the context of this capture, in any case I already warned the others that it was taken out of context

Diz: it's good that you recognize your mistakes, tbh I was surprised because I saw you as a "calm" person xD

Ski: What I don't understand is that there hasn't been a single warning that could have alerted me to make me understand that I need to calm down

Ski: I am, only I make crude jokes and that's not necessarily a good thing in public

Ski: It's such a disaster, I would never have imagined being banned without prior warning, it saddens me, I'm sorry to have broken these rules. Thank you for everything once again, it was really wonderful, I hope you can make many more people feel what I experienced here

Ski: I have never seen such a nice community

Ski: If you want to give me a second chance, I promise not to use those kinds of words on the server again, whether it be on the Discord server, in Minecraft chat or in private messages to members.

Ski: I'll understand if they don't let me in, sometimes you can't make exceptions. If they let me in, maybe someone else will take the opportunity to do what I did, seeing as I didn't get punished.

Ski: I just wish I had at least a second chance, that I would get banned if I made the slightest misstep, I would understand, I was just behaving too much like a "group of friends", I was never called the attention, otherwise I would never have used that kind of language.

Diz: I know but I just discovered all this today, otherwise I would have told you myself "hey don't say that", there are people who cover up for their friends because they are their friends, plus, we are only 2 french ppl on the MC server and I am usually not there

Diz: I would give you a second chance, but I have to talk about it with the others and it will take time, it's okay?

Ski: Yes. Of course. I'm just a little doubtful if Alpo is using a screenshot that has nothing to do with the Minecraft server.

Ski: It's a bit of defamation

Ski: Especially taken out of context like that, yes the message is rude

Diz: uhmmm this is probably the case, but to confirm it 100%, we would have to consult logs but for that, we need the date of the message

Ski: I was speaking for the DM, I don't really know the context "je vais faire mon arabe"

Ski: If you need, I can share a screen of our DMs for you, if he ever gets the idea to delete everything

Ski: Then as you said you weren't there, he was there, he even used what I said, taking only what was necessary that could bother me, without warning me to measure my vocabulary.

Ski: He even says "chouettes hors contexte" about my criticism of Colomb.

Ski: I'm going to sleep, I'll respond tomorrow if you add anything, thank you very much for maintaining contact, sorry to cause such problems within the server, have a good evening

Ski: I would like to add that the only people who know are Mender and Cherry at the moment, I was with them when you announced my ban, I haven't told anyone else yet, I'm trying not to ignite the powder if there is something, we might as well let things take their time.
